Your Destination, includes sightseeing

Eastbourne, of Saxon origin, is an unspoilt elegant Victorian seaside resort. Nestling under the Sussex Downs it enjoys a very pleasant all year round climate. It is protected from the more adverse weather conditions by the 575ft cliffs of Beachy Head and is renowned for its exquisite Carpet and Italian Gardens.

The town is bursting with so many things to see and do that you might want to extend your visit to fit more in. There are plenty of places to visit and fun things to do for all ages. Explore the area's history, discover 1066 castles, museums and art galleries, relax and enjoy the views of Beachy Head, local parks and gardens, sample the local produce from the town's vineyards and farmers markets, enjoy fun filled trips to the seaside or South Downs National Park, spend the day shopping and then soak up the local atmosphere in one of the many restaurants, wine bars or traditional pubs.

Climate and weather

Eastbourne enjoys a typical British climate but our Flamenco weekend weekend should warm the coldest of cockles!

Your Accommodation Imperial - Hotel*** (Half Board) (Included)

The Imperial is an impressive Victorian hotel situated at the seaward end of Devonshire Place, an imposing tree-lined boulevard less than fifteen minutes walk from the facilities and amenities in the town centre and just over the road from the promenade and bandstand. The Imperial offers a good standard of accommodation, comfortable lounge areas and the newly refurbished Majestic Restaurant as well as a small ballroom for dancing and evening entertainment. All 105 bedrooms have television, tea and coffee making facilities and private bathroom.

Classes and Workshops Your Flamenco course is five hours long. The whole group will have their tuition as a single class.

This is an ideal break for singles, couples or groups of friends. The weekend is well balanced between energetic but fun flamenco workshops where you will learn some flamenco rumba and tangos, essential for any flamenco party, and socialising and relaxing with other guests at the shows put on each night by the professionals. Our UK breaks are suitable for complete beginners.
