Classes and Workshops

You'll enjoy 6 hours of tango over the weekend and the group will have their tuition as a single class. Our Eastbourne weekend is suitable for intermediate and advanced dancers and will focus on themes including Milonga and Vals.

Sandra and Santiago will bring your tango on to levels that you would not have dared to hope for! How much you learn is down to the commitment you want to make during the weekend.

The first lesson includes a "level decider" to ensure you learn at the correct pace for your ability. Sandra and Santiago tailor their programme to each individual and ensure that everyone is being stretched. They'll observe the group and offer pointers before breaking out into relevant themes, which include-

Tango

Intermediate

Better connection in giros, ganchos, boleos, sacadas, enrosques

Advanced

Dynamics in motion, difficult sequences, variations

Vals and milonga

Argentine tango dancers usually enjoy two related dances: vals (waltz) and milonga.

Music for the vals is in 3/4 time. Tango dancers dance the vals in a rather relaxed, smooth flowing dancing style in contrast to Viennese Waltz where the dancers often take 3 steps per measure and turn almost constantly. Experienced dancers alternate the smooth one-beat-per-measure walk with some double time steps (often incorrectly called syncopated walks), stepping on one- two- or (rarely) all three beats in a measure. Vals dancing is characterised by absence of pauses; continual turns (giros) in both directions are not done as in ballroom quick waltz, although turns are sometimes introduced for variety.

Milonga, in 2/4 time, has a strongly accented beat, and sometimes an underlying "habanera" rhythm. Dancers avoid pausing, and often introduce double time steps (incorrectly called syncopation and more appropriately called traspies) into their walks and turns. Milonga dancing uses the same basic elements as tango, with a strong emphasis on the rhythm, and figures that tend to be less complex than some danced in other varieties of tango. Some tango instructors say that tango steps should not be used in milonga and that milonga has its own special rhythm and steps, which are quite different from tango.

The teachers will pass through the group on an on-going basis, giving individual help to each couple. Once a couple have mastered the steps a new element is added, ensuring everyone is stretched.

By the end of the week, depending on your commitment, it will be possible for more experienced dancers to have mastered between 5 to 8 beautiful and complicated dance sequences.

Dance Studios: The tango classes will take place within the hotel ballroom with a wood floor.
