IS THIS HOLIDAY FOR ME?

Yes! Anyone who has some experience of Line Dance will enjoy this holiday; Maggie G's professionalism and fun method of teaching mean that everyone gets something out of the classes and benefits from the very sociable atmosphere.

Maggie's classes will stretch you; as one of the UK's best teachers she regularly updates her choreographies and always brings something fresh and new to our holidays. Outside of the classes, there is plenty of time to relax, soak up the sun and enjoy the area; what's not to love?

THE DESTINATION

Huelva: Sun, beach and Nature. Embark on the caravels that discovered the New World. Meander down the Guadiana River towards the sea of the explorers. Explore the Rio Tinto landscapes that will transport you to Mars. Experience the magic of Sierra de Aracena and Picos de Aroche, where the best ham in the world is produced. Find out why Doñana is Europe's greatest nature reserve. Come to see for yourself that the virgin beaches of your dreams do exist.

CLIMATE AND WEATHER

In October, Huelva typically enjoys mild and pleasant weather. Average temperatures range from about 15°C (59°F) at night to around 25°C (77°F) during the day. It's a transition month, so you can expect a mix of sunny days and some occasional rain. The humidity is generally moderate, and the sea temperature is still warm enough for swimming. Overall, it's a lovely time to visit, with fewer crowds than in the summer months.

YOUR TEACHERS

We are thrilled to present exceptional teaching and entertainment led by the renowned choreographer Maggie G.

Maggie Gallagher is a celebrated entertainer and one of England's foremost line-dancing instructors. She travels extensively, hosting workshops around the globe. Notably, she taught at the 1999 World Line Dancing Championships in Texas and at the Tarheel Festival in the USA in September 2000. Her subsequent journeys to Europe, Japan, Singapore, and Australia have solidified her reputation as a global leader in line dance.

Maggie has also featured in the video "Lionel Dancing" alongside Lionel Blair and other dance instructors. She instructs her own choreographed dances, including the widely popular "Magatina Cha Cha," which she created with Tina Neale and set to music by the Dean Brothers.

Many of Maggie's choreographed line dances have made their mark on the "Line Dance Charts," with hits like "Just a Memory," "Hot Love," and "Na Mara" continuing to energize dance floors at socials both in the UK and internationally. Her groundbreaking 2001 dance "Mony Mony" was the first line dance to reach No. 1 on the charts. Maggie has been recognized multiple times as "Female Linedance Personality of the Year" by Linedancer Magazine readers in 1999, 2000, and 2001. She has also received prestigious "Crystal Boots" awards for "Beginner Dance of the Year" (for "Just a Memory"), "Choreographer of the Year," "Overall Dance of the Year" (for "Mony Mony"), and "Instructor of the Year."

With a diverse background in tap, ballet, modern, and Irish dancing, Maggie's career is nothing short of spectacular. She toured with renowned performers Colin Dunne and Jean Butler, who later gained fame in Riverdance. Her love for line dancing began over seven years ago in Coventry, and she has since become a prominent figure in this vibrant dance community.
